

Paul't Hoen

Chair of the Advisory Council, ICTREGIE, Olanda

Paul't Hoen is chairman of the Advisory Council of the Netherlands ICT Research and Innovation Authority (ICTRegie) and chairman of Kennisnet, the national school network. He also chairs the Steering Committee of the Holst Centre (R&D), is a trustee of IICD (International Institute for Communication and Development), is board member in 2 IT companies and is a member of several public advisory councils.

Graduated as an engineer in 1970, worked for KPN, from 1985 as Management Board Member for KPN Telecom, from 1991 Strategy VP for KPN Holding and then CEO of the cable subsidiary (Vision Networks). Moved to Lucent Technologies EMEA as VP Strategy in 1998 and is since September 2001 an independent professional.