

Enzo Savarese

Commissario per le Infrastrutture e le Reti, Autorità per le Garanzie nelle Comunicazioni

1953 – Born in Brescia, Italy, on January 3

1977 – Graduate in Law, with honors, University of Rome, La Sapienza;

1977-78 – Lieutenant Guardia di Finanza, Rome, Italy;

1980 – Certificate in International Business and Finance, New York University, NY, NY;

1977-82 – Responsible for European and Institutional Affairs – Finsider S.P.A. Rome;

1982-83 – Marketing Manager SiderFrance S.A. Paris France;

1982-83 – Senior Market Analyst Paine Webber, NY, NY;

1983-86 – Vice President Marketing and P.R. Siderius Inc, NY, NY;

1986-88 – CEO SiderFrance S.A. Paris France;

1988-90 – General Manager Sofin S.p.A., Napoli, Italy;

1990-93 – Head of International Relations Alitalia S.p.A., Rome, Italy;

1994-2001 – Congressman, Head of Transportation and Telecommunications Committee – Member of the EU Committee – Member of the NATO Committee;

2001-05 – President and CEO Alicos S.p.A., Palermo, Italy;

2001-05 – Senior Vice President Alitalia S.p.A., Rome, Italy;

2004-05 – Director Atesia S.p.A., Rome Italy;

2005 - Present – AGCOM Commissioner (National TLC Regulatory Authority);

Languages spoken, Italian, English, French and Spanish;

Editorialist of “Il Tempo”, “Roma”, “Il Secolo”, “Il Mattino”, “Il Messaggero”;

Teacher LUMSA University, Rome (Master in Public Services Law and Governance, September-October, 2006 – September, 2007 - On)